CHEER GEN. LEE IN THE GOOD OLD WAY

Confederate Veterans in Typical Soldier Reunion at New Orleans—
Three Days For Meeting.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New Orleans, La., April 25.—The United Confederate Veterans began their sixteenth annual reunion in New Orleans today. Fifteen thousand veterans and their friends filled the auditorium when the gathering was formally called to order at noon. Chairman Jones delivered the invocation. Governor Blanchard welcomed the veterans to Louisiana, and Mayor Behrman spoke for the city of New Orleans. The welcoming addresses were responded to by Lieutenant General Stephen D. Lee, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans. General Lee's appearance was the occasion of a great demonstration. The veterans rose in a body, hats, handkerchiefs and coats, went into the air, and cheer after cheer rang out, the many women present joining in the applause. The applause continued for several minutes. In his brief address General Lee made touching reference to the late Major General Joseph Wheeler and other prominent veterans of the Confederacy who have passed away since the last reunion. Judge James B. Gantt, commander of the Missouri division of the U. C. V., delivered the annual address, and then the meeting adjourned for the day after the appointment of committees on credentials and resolutions, which are to report tomorrow. Veterans and other visitors continued to pour into the city in large numbers this morning, and it was estimated that the total attendance at noon was near the 100,000 mark. Texas is unusually well represented, while all the states from Maryland to the mouth of the Mississippi and from Florida to Missouri have sent good-sized delegations. The visitors have found the local arrangements of a perfect character and nothing is being left undone to contribute to their comfort and pleasure. The entertainment features of the program begin tonight with a grand ball. The downtown district is decorated as never before with a profusion of flags, bunting, streamers and electric lights.

SIX HUNDRED KANSAS DEMOCRATS HOLDING ANNUAL CONVENTION

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Topeka, Kas., April 25.—The democratic state convention assembled in Topeka today to name candidates for the state offices to be filled at this year's election, including governor, secretary of state, superintendent of public instruction, etc. More than six hundred delegates filled the auditorium when the gathering was called to order by Chairman Sapp, of the state committee. The opening addresses, appointment of the necessary committees and other routine business occupied the initial session. The names of Judge A. N. Jackson of Winfield, former Senator W. A. Harris, and several other leaders are mentioned in connection with the gubernatorial nomination.

Another Delay in Announcement of Davidson's Candidacy.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., April 25.—The announcement of Governor Davidson as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor has been delayed, but when it is issued, which will be probably the last of this week, it will be substantially a platform of principles upon which the present governor will stand in his invitation for the suffrage of the republicans of Wisconsin. During the past week there have been a number of conferences of informal nature at the executive office, at which the governor availed himself of the judgment of political leaders from various parts of the state in the preparation of his announcement, so that the document now in final preparation will not be merely the personal bid of James O. Davidson for votes, but will represent the mature thought of influential men of the party in Wisconsin.

ORGANIZATION WILL BE MADE NATIONAL

'New England Cotton Manufacturers' Association' to Become 'The National,' Etc.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Boston, Mass., April 25.—The eightieth meeting of the New England Cotton Manufacturers' Association, which began today at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is notable chiefly for the representative character of the attendance. In addition to the New England manufacturers present there were a number of manufacturers from the South and also a delegation representing the Master English Spinners. The convention will be in session two days and a large number of papers on technical subjects will be read. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and other notable speakers will be heard. Action will be taken on the proposal to change the name of the association to the 'National Association of Cotton Manufacturers,' thus making the organization national in name as well as in scope.

CHURCH CLUBS IN NATIONAL SESSION

Representative Laymen of the Episcopal Churches in Every State Gather at Rochester.
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Rochester, N. Y., April 25.—Representative laymen of the Episcopal church in the United States met in Rochester today for the fourteenth annual session of the National Conference of Church Clubs. Delegates were on hand from Maine to California. The conference was opened this morning in St. Paul's church with a celebration of the Holy communion. Bishop Walker delivered an address of welcome, which was followed by the annual address of the president, Geo. C. Thomas of Philadelphia. The conference will remain in session over tomorrow. The thank offering to be presented by the laymen at the General Convention next year is one of the important topics slated for discussion.

LADIES' BANQUET OF SOCIAL UNION

PROVED VERY MUCH OF A SUCCESS LAST EVENING.

HUNDRED EIGHTY PRESENT

Excellent Menu and Good Program of Clever Toasts and Pleading Musical Numbers.

Full measure of success attended the closing banquet of the Social Union Club in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last evening. Ninety members of the society with ladies were present. It was ladies' night—the first in the history of the club—and the event proved very enjoyable.

Music by Kneff and Hatch

It was half-past six o'clock when the gentlemen and ladies stepped to the dining-room, where the banquet boards were spread. There were four long tables, tastefully decorated and lighted by electric lamps arranged for the occasion. The repast was very excellent and during the serving the Kneff and Hatch four-piece orchestra discoursed music. The menu was as follows:

Eggs a la Reine Scalloped Potatoes
Chicken Patties Olives
Cold Ham Beets a la Shaw
Pea Salad Hot Rolls
Creamed Cheese Wafers
Vanilla Ice Cream Assorted Cakes
Maple Syrup

Coffee Salted Pecans
The supper was prepared by the Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. Edward S. Falter acting as caterer. The dining-room was in charge of Miss Lucy Fox and those who served were Ida Greene, Sara MacLean, Ray Heyman, Mabel Rustad and Daisy MacLean and the Messrs. Harvey Lee, Arthur Clark, Bert Baker, George Butts, Fred Jensen and Bruce Kline.

After the banquet Rev. R. M. Vaughan, who acted as toastmaster, arose and inaugurated the postprandial program. With his usual grace and humor he introduced a sextette of young ladies—the Misses Agnes Griebel, Vera Lynt, Daisy MacLean, Cora Putnam, Mildred Crandall and Marion Hollenbeck. "Spring Time," by Abt. was very pleasingly rendered and liberal applause compelled an encore. "The Hunter's Song," by Kueken, was given. The sextette is directed by Mrs. W. S. Jeffris and she played the piano accompaniments. The toastmaster, in a few more choice words and with another good story, called upon A. E. Matheson to toast "The Ladies." The speaker expressed his appreciation of the great confidence the committee in charge of the program had reposed in him. He enjoyed talking of womanhood, especially American womanhood and more particularly of Janesville womanhood. He believed the club was for the betterment of the members, largely the young men of the city, and he confidently thought that the ladies would, therefore, give it their endorsement.

Clever Toast to "The Men"
"Love, the Pedler," by Edward German, was sung by Mrs. C. L. Mohr so pleasingly that applause called for another solo. "The Lass with the Delicate Air," by Dr. Thomas A. Arndt, was the second selection and brought forth another storm of plaudits. To the subject, "The Men," Mrs. Roy Palmer responded in verse. The stanzas were parodies of familiar Mother Goose rhymes and various members of the clubs were cleverly toasted. Many were the good-natured victims of her wit. Following this number Miss Florence Spooner gave a reading, "A Little God and Dicky." The impersonation of Dicky was perfect and in response to the applause another child dialect selection was rendered. "Our Club" was then toasted by H. C. Buell. He spoke of the value of such an organization and expressed the gratification of those who helped organize the Social Union upon the success with which it had met. The program closed with a vocal selection from George Adkins. The piece was "Let All Obey," a bass solo from the opera, "The Enchantress." It was most ably rendered. The accompaniment for this selection was played by Mrs. Lewis.

TIME WAS RIPE FOR EARTHQUAKE SHOCK

Nebraska Geologist Compares an Iowa's Prophecy to Roulette with Present Disturbance.

"The Pacific coast was ripe for just such a disturbance as this," is the statement of Professor E. H. Barbour of the University of Nebraska, state geologist, in speaking of the recent San Francisco earthquake. "No earthquake has appeared for years where it might be expected at any time. As the years went by the law of probability made an earthquake very probable. Professor Calvin of Iowa did predict an earthquake for the Pacific coast seven days before it came. He told his classes it might be expected there in a week's time. His prediction became a reality. Now, he was just like the man who plays a roulette wheel for a long time. The probability is that the color will come along before long."

See Miracle After Prayer
When the priests and others marched around Vesuvius the other day singing hymns and uttering prayers, the volcano ceased its destructive work because it had spent its force not because of the prayers. Yet thousands of people saw the working of a miracle by that procession. Years ago the people of Nebraska prayed for rain and it came soon afterward. Seven hot weeks had gone by without a single drop of rain. As the days went by, rain became more probable each day. That the rain did come after the prayers of the people was counted an answer to prayer, but it was really because the elements had worked around to the rain-producing conditions.

Lost Its Use
"On account of the destruction by fire, the most useful lessons which might have been gained from the ruins left by the earthquake will never be learned. From the reports received from the coast, it seems that the center of the earthquake must have been located at Palo Alto or the center may have been in an imaginary line drawn through Palo Alto, San Francisco and Santa Rosa. Destruction in all three of these cities by the earthquake itself was most marked. The buildings seemed to be lifted straight into the air at these places, so the shock must have come from a point exactly underneath. Buildings not under this center would rock with the shock, but the cracks would all be at right angles with the vibratory waves."

Dynamite Causes Quake.
In illustrating the causes of earthquakes Professor Barbour referred to the earthquake caused by the explosion of a great amount of dynamite under Hell Gate fort as far east as when tremors were felt as far as Philadelphia and as far south as Philadelphia. Also to various shocks in Japan and to the Charleston earthquake, in which tremors were felt for a month, at first slight, then terribly strong and then of lessening strength.

CATTLE KILLED BY STATE HEALTH MAN

State Chemist Kills Large Herd Near Madison.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., April 23.—Bovine tuberculosis is epidemic among the dairy herds of the richest dairy sections of Wisconsin, according to recent investigations made by State Veterinarian Roberts and Professor H. L. Russell of the University of Wisconsin, secretary of the state board of health and secretary of the state live stock sanitary board. Professor Russell says the situation with respect to the prevalence of the disease is particularly alarming in the southern portion of the state, in the vicinity of Madison, where from 60 to 95 per cent of the herds of the various creameries investigated are found to be infected. The investigation of one creamery, in Medina, showed that of 40 herds bringing milk to the creamery, only three were free from the disease. These three herds had been brought into the locality within the past year and had hardly had time to become infected. Of the 400 cattle contributing the milk supply of this creamery, 352 have been condemned to slaughter. At another creamery, 88 of the 150 cattle were condemned. Similar conditions prevail in some what less alarming degree all over this part of the state.

The Railroad Commissioners of Texas propose to order all passenger fares in the state reduced to 2½ cents a mile, and will give a hearing on May 3, when the railroads can offer any objections which they may have. The rates at present are 3 cents a mile.

The Louisville & Nashville, having reduced its passenger fares on a part of its line near Louisville to half the ordinary rates, to compete with an electric line, will be called before the State Railroad Commission to defend its action, complaint having been filed with the Commission that in making this reduction the L. & N. discriminates against the general public. The low rates apply only on certain new trains, running once an hour, which were put on specially to compete with the electric line.

SCENES AT INSANE ASYLUM

Allen Heller Writes from Santa Clara Concerning Disaster There and at San Jose.

This morning the first word from Elias Heller and family, who went from here several months ago to reside at San Jose, Calif., was received. It was in a letter from Allen Heller to a friend and scenes at the Agnew Insane Asylum, which have been mentioned in the dispatches, are described. The epistle follows:

Santa Clara, Calif., Thursday, April 19, 1906.

Dear Friend:
Yesterday morning at 5:13 I was awakened by a terrible rumbling. It was terrible. Then my bed commenced to roll and the windows commenced to rattle, things were falling and it was a terrible sensation, but I did not realize it until afterward. I thought it was just a little earthquake. That's all. But I heard hollering and crying, so I resolved to see "what was doing." I jumped up and ran to the parlor, looked around and went back to bed, but was soon out and it did not take long for me to dress. As soon as I was out the door I saw a large church all caved in. The steeple was standing on a few small pilings. But when the second shock came in the afternoon it fell. Mother saw it fall.

I went uptown and buildings were caved in and men were digging others from the rubbish. It was a awful sight. I went to the next corner where there was a man that had just arrived from the insane asylum at Agnew. He came for help. Boys and men went on wheels and a big carry-all went out. When we arrived the most awful scene I ever looked at faced me. The main building, which is about a block long, was caved in. Crazy people were running loose, dead were lying on the grass, and people running about covered with blood and plaster. I helped carry ladders, as I could not stand to look at the dead. I helped boost one ladder to a window where a man could be heard talking beneath the rubbish. But we could not get to him.

I went to the other end of the building where the ladies' wards were. Here they were leading insane women out in the night clothes. Some were carrying handbags and others were hollering and crying. Some were covered with blood. O, but it was fierce! I never want to witness anything like it again. There are sixty-two dead and I do not know how many injured. Later in the day the inmates had to be chained to trees. They were all running loose when I left there. The sights were too much for me. I had to leave them. I came back to Santa Clara—about five miles—and got breakfast, and started for San Jose, which is about three miles. There were no cars running so I had to walk. San Jose suffered very badly. Not a building but what there was a chimney over, some plaster down or windows broken. Several buildings were completely destroyed. Business is completely suspended. As yet there are only about fifteen lives lost that are known about. We can go out in the yard and see the fire in Frisco. We escaped with only a broken chimney. But do not know what will happen next. There are thirty thousand people on their way here from Frisco. The big quake and rolling lasted 45 seconds. We have had about fifteen, six, but smaller ones. Hoping this finds you better than ever, I remain

Yours truly,
ALLEN HELLER.

GOOD VAUDEVILLE AT MYERS OPERA HOUSE

John L. Sullivan and Company Pleases Audience Last Evening.

That John L. Sullivan is not a back number is proven by the enthusiastic greeting he was given last evening at the Myers Opera House, where he appeared with his own vaudeville company. The "Big Fellow" told stories and gave his little talk in so pleasing a manner that he kept the audience in a roar of laughter. Jimmy Berry, a North Dakota wrestler, threw young Dobbin, a local man in the wrestling contest and Kid Cutler, a western product of ability and with a future boxed three rounds with John L. The vaudeville portion of the program was most excellent. Those who missed the Potts in their clever work missed a good exhibition. Costumed as Japs they gave a concert on chimes, xylophone, bells and crayon work that has never before been seen on a local stage. Billie Tan, the dancing Irish comedian, was excellent. The two Misses Frank in their bag-punching and physical culture work was something novel. The De Arcos gave a good number and the singing features were most excellent. Taking it all in all the entertainment was one of the best vaudeville attractions that has come to Janesville for some time.

FILLS NEGRO WITH BUCKSHOT

Assault on Texas Farmer's Daughter Brings Quick Vengeance.

Grosbeck, Tex., April 23.—While being conveyed to jail in the custody of two officers, a negro charged with having assaulted the daughter of J. A. Eastland, a farmer of Delta, at an early hour Monday morning was taken from the officers by a posse of citizens and held until the arrival of the girl's father.

When Eastland rode up he ordered the crowd to stand back and emptied both barrels of his shotgun loaded with buckshot into the negro, killing him instantly.

LARGER ACREAGE OF BEETS WILL BE GROWN IN COUNTY

Representative of Rock County Sugar Co. Tells of This Year's Contracts—Thousands of Acres in Ill.

Now while the farmers are plowing their fields and sowing the earlier crops it is interesting to know something of the acreage of beets that is to be raised this year. In Rock county, said a representative of the local sugar factory, a larger number of farmers, tilling a larger area of ground, will raise beets this year than last. Our contracts cover the country more thoroughly than formerly, the end to which we have been working in order to save transportation expenses. In the counties to the east and further north our acreage is smaller than last year, because we have cut down our soliciting force in those regions. But to counteract this we have about a thousand acres in the five counties of Northern Illinois. We have an agent at Rockford—Clarence Bullock, formerly of the local number of solicitors throughout the district. Tests of the soil in that district last year showed that it was adapted to beet culture and the agriculturists have given us much encouragement by the way they have agreed to try the new crop.

The land for the beets is being prepared and the seed is being sent out to the farmers. All in Rock county are calling for their's from the distributing points, while the rest of the growers will be able to secure their's within a week.

REMNANTS GATHERED TOGETHER ONCE MORE

Athletic System at Madison so Being Placed in Good Standing.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., April 23.—The remnants of the athletic system at the University of Wisconsin have been gathered up by Emmett D. Angell, assistant professor of physical culture, who has been appointed by the faculty as temporary director of athletics, and the start of a new era in collegiate sports has been made. Baseball has been abandoned for the present season. Track work has been maintained and subscriptions to the fund for sending the eight-oared shell east in June to participate in the annual regatta on the Hudson river at Poughkeepsie are so generous that it is expected that the annual trip will be made, notwithstanding the fact that the athletic association is practically out of cash. Negotiations are in progress for an intercollegiate football schedule for next fall. It is hoped to arrange games with Illinois, Indiana, Purdue and perhaps Northwestern universities and possibly with a few small colleges in this state as Beloit, Lawrence and Marquette in Milwaukee. The season will be started at the opening of the school in the fall, there will be no preliminary training and no specially named table for the players. The paraphernalia will be limited and the game in all its details will be less strenuous and less expensive than heretofore. The season next fall is planned to be more in the nature of keeping the game alive and testing the new rules than to maintain any athletic prestige that the badger institution may have attained in the past. A great stimulus has been given to inter-class and inter-fraternity athletics. Baseball is confined to such contests entirely and the schedule has already been started.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

AL. H. WILSON, GOLDEN-VOICED

Al. H. Wilson, (Metz) the clever singing dialect comedian, in Robert Sidney's rollicking comedy, "The German Gipsy," is to be the attraction at the Myers Grand under the management of Sidney R. Ellis, Friday, April 27.

When J. K. Emmet died, his mantle and armor remained unused and dusty until Al. H. Wilson, (Metz) came along, a few years ago, and poled his manly figure into them. They fitted him exactly; he resurrected and glorified them from the first, he sang and modeled beautifully, with as much skill as the great Emmet ever displayed—and Emmet was the best of his time. Al. H. Wilson, (Metz) is now the greatest, romantic actor in the world.

He was born on New Year's day, twenty-five years ago. As soon as he could walk, he began to sing. It was as natural for him as breathing. He has had his training, the best to be had, and plenty of experience, but the delight of his singing lies in its individuality. He expresses himself in it as truly as a poet does in words or a painter in colors. All of his best notes are of his own invention, the result of his own inspiration. No one else can sing them as Wilson sings them. He has had scores of imitators, but not one of them comes near him in his art.

The "Boston Herald," a critical sheet, but a wise one, compares Mr. Wilson to Wachtel, the great tenor of years gone by. The comparison is an apt one, with the exception that Mr. Wilson has youth, ambition, and persistence in his favor.

"The German Gipsy" is the best play Mr. Wilson has ever appeared in as it combines all the elements that appeal to the American public. It is a comedy from full of laughs from beginning to end. Mr. Wilson sings a new song every few minutes during the action. The most popular being "Under the Harvest Moon," "No Love Like This," "Gretchen," "The Love Trust," "My German Rose," "The Girl For Me," "Katie Kransie," and "The Rocky Road to Dublin," introducing also in character selections the Zingara Gipsy Trio.

...FORTY YEARS AGO...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Wednesday, April 25, 1866.—Great Freshet on the Wisconsin.—Mr. Beebe informs us that the high water on the Wisconsin river carried away the bridge at Kilbourn City yesterday. It was built by the La Crosse Railway company and was a very expensive structure.

Subscription for Survey of Rock River.—We have received the names of those who have subscribed for the survey of Rock River, and will be glad to add to the list the names of any of those whom the solicitors may have missed. In this city alone, the sum already subscribed amounts to half the tax assessed on this county, leaving an easy task for Beloit and the other towns to do. Our Illinois neighbors have got their money already raised, and in the bank and mean to push the matter ahead with all necessary dispatch. Let us not be behind.

Badger State Corn Glig. Cultivator.—This cultivator has been tried under various circumstances and has always done the work well when used as intended. With the late improvements it shall work as easily as need be. It may be used with six or four shovels as may be required by the condition of the ground. The frame is adjusted to any width or depth at leisure. The frame is very high, being as high as the neckyoke when in use. It is of light draft, neatly and substantially made and is warranted to do good work when properly used. The shovels are all made of steel and hardened. To those wanting a glig cultivator we can recommend the Badger State as one that will give satisfaction. The following named persons have the Badger State in use, to whom we would refer any one wishing to make inquiries about them: David Smith, Milton, T. I. Ruger, B. H. Moon, Harmony, John, Hanny, Johnstown, Jacob, Fowler, Bradford.

As a limited number of them will be made this year, orders must be received early. Call and see them at the Badger State Agricultural Works of R. J. Richardson, Janesville, Wis.

The consolidation of the Western State telegraph line with United States and American lines, and it is intimated that the arrangements may not be consummated.

PROPOSALS FOR UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS.

Sealed proposals will be received by the regents of the University of Wisconsin up to two o'clock p. m., May 21, 1906, at the regent's office in the law building at the university for the construction of an Agronomy building and for the construction of an agricultural engineering building, under plans and specifications of Architect Peabody, at whose office in the law building at the university, plans and specifications may be seen. They may also be seen at the office of the Builders' Exchange in Milwaukee, or at the office of the American Contractor in Chicago, or will be sent to persons desiring to bid upon deposit of $10.00 for each set to assure return.

Bids will be taken according to specifications for mill construction and separate bids according to specifications for the entire construction including reinforced concrete construction. Separate bids will be received for the finishing hardware for these buildings.

Bids must be made upon the form supplied by the architect and check to order of undersigned for two per cent of the amount of the bid must be attached to the bid, as a guaranty that the bidder will execute contract. The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids.

Bids should be sealed and addressed to the undersigned, marked "proposals, etc."

Dainty Foods Demand It

IN EVERY Receipt that calls for cream of tartar, soda, or baking powder, use the Royal Baking Powder. Better results will be obtained because of the absolute purity and great leavening strength of the Royal. It will make the food lighter, sweeter, of finer flavor, more digestible and wholesome. It is always reliable and uniform in its work.

Alum and phosphate baking powders—some of them sold at the same price and some of them cheaper—will make neither dainty nor wholesome food.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

to second place at such a time after his strenuous work brings out a universal protest.

The displacement of the old park custodian, Mr. Croft, to pay off a political score created by his son, on the part of one of the retiring aldermen, is deplored. Mr. Croft has been a good and faithful workman and should at once be given back his old position. People who enjoy our city parks appreciate his work and they should have some voice in the matter. In matters of this kind personal grudges should be placed in the background for the good of the city.

CAUSE OF DELAY.

The government of the United States has decided to build a canal across the Isthmus of Panama. But the actual construction of this great work is delayed by the inability of congress to decide how it shall be built and what kind of a canal it shall be. Secretary Taft has urged congress to act without further delay. It is evident that the enemies of the Isthmian Canal project are still at work.

WHAT FOLLY!

It is not possible even to bring to a vote in either branch of congress, a tariff bill embodying what the Massachusetts howlers howl for without being so amended before the final vote that the Massachusetts howlers will reject it, says The Lebanon (N. H.) Press. A tariff bill goes as a whole. No single schedule is ever voted on separately. Some people forget that. When you offer any amendment whatever to an existing tariff it is folly not to consider what is sure to be offered in amendment as an offset. Massachusetts is not likely ever to see an other tariff on the whole so favorable to her or to New England, as the reigning tariff. What folly, then, tariff agitation in New England.

FATALISM.

San Francisco lies a mass of ruins. Two nights before its destruction the Call, one of the leading papers of the city published an editorial on Fatalism. In the light of the present awful disaster which has stricken this great city this editorial sounds curious. It is as though a voice was speaking from the tomb. Before that issue of the Call had reached the eastern exchanges, San Francisco had met its doom. The editorial in question was upon the "strange spirit of fatalism that had the Italian peasantry to dwell upon the side of Vesuvius. Overhead was the smoking crater. Underneath were the ever seething fires. Every night the populace laid them down knowing that before morning the crater might bury them in ashes that the ground might yearn beneath them and drop them into a living hell. Yet thousands made their homes adjoining to these dangers. Perchance a man lived there through his boyhood, became a father, and even a grandfather, and then the dread mountain belched death and destruction. How could they do it? asked the Call.

UNIVERSAL FELLOWSHIP.

In the destruction of San Francisco the idea of universal fellowship and division of the riches of this world for the benefit of the poor appear to have been personified. Up to last night over eight millions of dollars had been received by the different agencies who were collecting money for the afflicted city. The great state of New York gave a quarter of a million more and cities throughout the country have given sums ranging from the hundreds of thousands to the hundreds of thousands each. The gifts have been proportionate to the wealth of the contributors. The rich man has given his hundred thousand, the poor man his fifty cents. The whole world is akin in the movement to aid the unfortunate. The disciples of anarchy who deplore the rich man's wealth, who urge their followers to assassinate them and burn their dwellings, are justly rebuked. Universal fellowship. The kind of fellowship that counts has been exhibited as never before in the history of the world.

SAN FRANCISCO IS INDISPENSABLE.

That buildings do not make a city will be demonstrated by the rapidly with which San Francisco resumes its place among the world's great emporiums. What makes a city, a great city, is great men, men to whom adversity is but a challenge; to rise above circumstances and conquer conditions. A city's greatness consists also in its connections with the rest of the world. Within a few weeks all of the great transcontinental lines of railway will again connect San Francisco with the East and with Europe. Her coastwise lines on the Pacific will equally soon resume their schedules with the north and south coast, and the transpacific liners will abate little from the splendid record which they have made in the past, in bringing the western world in closer touch with the orient.

The fact is that this nation cannot spare San Francisco any more than it can spare New York, or Chicago, or New Orleans. She is needed, where her ashes now lie, as the gateway to the Hawaiian Islands, our watch tower in the Pacific. She is indispensable as a strategic factor in our influence in Asia. She is to our western ocean frontage almost what the Keilor Pass is to England's frontier in northwestern India. We must not weaken a iota, but ever be strong at that point of vantage for our own sake.

Not many months hence the world's lumber schooners will again throng her wharves for cargoes, to every quarter of the globe. The sailing ships of all nations will again call for their burdens of golden grain. From land and from sea, will come again those immense stores which have all ways filled her warehouses with the things that minister to the material wants of man.

A city with such a ministry, of such strategic value, and of such people may be shaken down, may be burnt up, but it cannot perish from the earth. San Francisco, the golden city of the west, is indispensable to the nation, to the continent, to the world. With magnificent faith and courage Wm. H. Crocker says that within five years San Francisco will be greater and more beautiful than ever.

SEWER CASE WILL BE TRIED IN JUNE

New City Attorney Secures Court Order Compelling the Filing of a Complaint.

Yesterday the plaintiffs in the case of R. F. Hanrahan, et al. of Chicago versus the city of Janesville, were served with a court order compelling them to file a complaint. This order was secured by City Attorney H. L. Maxfield after the complainants had requested that the suit be brought to trial on the first of May. Mr. Maxfield found that it would be impossible to prepare his case by that time and that the plaintiffs had never filed or served a complaint, the claim simply being appealed from the City Council to the Circuit court. The court order gives the plaintiffs notice to file and serve such papers within twenty days. The City Attorney will be given twenty days after such serving to file his answer. Then the date for the trial can be set either by agreement or by court. This action will probably put the case over into the June term. The suit is for $13,950.40, claimed to be due for work services and extras performed, furnished and rendered on sewer work.

MISS VERA NOLAN, ABLE TO LEAVE HOSPITAL TODAY.

Is Keeping up Her Spirits and Condition Is Very Encouraging.

Miss Vera Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Nolan, who had her right eye so badly injured as to destroy the sight in an explosion at the high school chemical laboratory on April 17, was able today to leave the hospital with her mother and the nurse, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, who have been constantly at her side, and return to her home. Her many friends will be very glad to learn that she has kept cheerful and hopeful and that the physicians believe that eye need not be removed and its appearance will not be materially altered. The nurse will remain at the Nolan home for some time.

PRESS COMMENT.

Exchange: What between Jake Rigg, who links him with Washington and Lincoln, and Charles A. Towne, who links him to Judas Iscariot, it must puzzle Mr. Roosevelt to guess where he is at.

Others Slurred by Inference. Milwaukee Sentinel: Senator La Follette's pointed tribute to the national supreme court compares most favorably with President Roosevelt's gratuitous and impolitic personal attack on Judge Humphrey.

Makes a Difference Whose Rascal.

Milwaukee News: It seems to make a difference whose rascal is raked over the coals. If it is the other fellow's rascal, a great public service is performed, but if it is one's own rascal it is contemptible raking of muck.

A Frame that Only Twists.

Chicago Inter Ocean: The skyscrapers in San Francisco shed their veneering in the earthquake, which confirms the theory that every skyscraper of modern construction is practically two buildings, the one that gets twisted, and the one that falls in to the street.

The Good in Earthquakes.

Evening Wisconsin: "There's nothing either good or bad but thinking makes it so," and science has an appreciative word even for the earthquake. But for earthquakes, it is pointed out, the constant action of water, washing the earth into the rivers, which bear it to the sea, would have long ago worn away the continents. Sir John Herschel stated a truth no one has disputed when he said: "Had the primeval world been constructed as it now exists, time enough has elapsed, and force enough directed to that end, has been in activity, to have destroyed every vestige of land." Proctor, in his "Notes on Earthquakes," develops this theory thus: "It is to the reproductive energy of the earth's internal forces that we are indebted for the very existence of dry land."

ARE ENTHUSIASTIC AS TO THE PLANS

Col. Horton and His Proposed Monthly Matinee Races Please Horsemen and Citizens.

Col. Horton, the Washington gentleman who has made arrangements to hold a series of matinee races during the coming summer at the Fair grounds, is receiving much encouragement in his project on all sides. The old days of Janesville and the Janesville track meets when horses and horsemen came hundreds of miles to attend the racing week are recalled and the interest in the project is considerable. In speaking of his plans this morning Col. Horton said: "I have received mighty good encouragement in the proposed initial meet in May next. Almost everyone I have talked with says they are glad I am to come here and the prospects for the initial meet being a success are good. Of course everything can not be done in a few days, but I think by another season's matinees will be so firmly established that the work of rearing the park for fair purposes will be begun. The track I find excellent. It is as long as in practical disuse it is as live as a new one. It was carefully gone over last fall and very little work would be necessary to make it as fast as it ever was. The initial meeting will be an oral fair and race meeting, including runners, trotters and pacers. Silver prizes for the horse show and purses for the races is the plan."

NEARLY READY FOR LAYING THE RAILS

As Soon as Spring Freshets Go Down Indian Ford Transportation Company Will Start.

President George McKee and T. F. Pierson, master mechanic, of the Indian Ford Transportation Company state that as soon as the river goes down sufficiently to begin work the tracks of the proposed road will be put in at Indian Ford. This means that during the coming summer launches can be run from Janesville to Lake Koshkonong and Ft. Atkinson and return without any great inconvenience. They can even go as far as Watertown now that the Indian Ford dam obstacle is to be overcome. The promoters of the Indian Ford Transportation Company feel assured of the success of their project and believe that it will cause many more launches to be owned upon the river this year than formerly. Already two houseboats are waiting for warm weather to start on their summer cruise and if they are successful doubtless next season will see many more. This mode of spending the summer is quite popular in the east and also on Lake Winnebago near Oshkosh and Fond du Lac and on the Mississippi. At present the river is quite high and it will be a month before the cottages along the banks will be tenanted with their summer colony.

HAVE FORGOTTEN THE DIPLOMA FEATURES

This Important Feature of the Rural School Life Left Out of the Law.

When the question of making an appropriation for holding diploma examinations came up before the county board that august body decided that under the new state law regarding schools they had no right to make such an appropriation. The attorney general and the district attorney were neither of them able to discover they had the right, so the matter was dropped. A committee of the Rock County Teachers' Association composed of David Thorne, E. E. Miller, Samuel Adams, Margaret Youngclaus and Louisa Raymond, was appointed and they have decided to recommend the following:

First, that the examinations be conducted as far as possible in the same manner as in the past five years. Second, that the conductors of the examinations be well-qualified teachers to be selected by the county superintendent, and that the school boards of the districts whose teachers are selected for this purpose grant them the two days needed and pay them their regular wages, because of the benefit their own scholars are getting

OBITUARY

Mrs. Lavinia M. Green. The funeral of the late Mrs. Lavinia Maria Goodrich Green, mother of Fred H. Green of this city, took place in Madison Sunday afternoon. The services were held at Grace Episcopal church. Deceased was born in Stephentown, N. Y., October 18, 1826. She came to Wisconsin with her parents in 1846 and was married a year later to Dr. James R. Green, a prominent physician in Dane county. There were two children—Fred H. Green of this city and James R. Green of Madison. Besides these she is survived by eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and two sisters.

MORE RAILROAD MEN LAID OFF EVERY DAY

Forces in All Departments, Being Cut—Coal Shortage Considered Responsible.

On nearly every railroad in the middle and northwest more workmen are laid off every day and the general sentiment among the men is that the shortage of coal and poor outlook for a settlement of the difficulty between the operators and miners is responsible. Both Northwestern and St. Paul companies have decreased their forces here and world is brought in by traveling workmen that the conditions are the same over both systems. Unless some agreement between the disputing parties is reached it is very likely that some hardship will be caused.

Condemns Polka Redows.

Editor of Kickers' Kolum: Why do the local orchestras insist on ringing in a lot of those polka-redows at the dances? Few people know or care to learn the step and more than one visitor from cities where they know what's what in matters terpsichorean has expressed the belief that the dance is original with Janesville and no praiseworthy innovation at that. Let's have reform along this line and some new music. Or, if we can't have

HOW OAKLAND IS AT THE PRESENT

INTERESTING LETTER OF FRED GOOCH'S ON EARTHQUAKE.

SCENES ARE DESCRIBED

How People Acted Across the Bay from San Francisco Last Wednesday.

Fred Gooch, who with his mother, Mrs. Mary Gooch, recently visited in Janesville and were in the awful railway wreck at Abodeo, Colorado, on their return trip, writes his cousin, Bert Gooch, an interesting letter on the awful scenes adjacent to San Francisco. Fred Gooch and his parents live a few miles from Oakland and the scenes described are the happenings in Oakland itself. His letter was written on the 18th, the night of the shock, and is interesting as it touches upon phases not hitherto mentioned in dispatches or letters. He says:

The Letter
"I will start in and tell you what happened since last night. Pa and I were home alone. Ma was down to Maude's house. She was going to San Francisco; she went in so as to get a good early start.
Pa and I went to bed about 10 p. m. We slept all right and pa got up at his usual time, 4:45 a. m. He called me and I just started to get dressed and, say, things started to shake. Gee, it was worse than a swing. Well, I managed to get out as far as the back porch. You ought to have seen the sight I seen; the earth was rolling—it was going up and down; why, the trees just shook so the tops bent and touched the ground."

Such a Noise
"And say, such a noise and racket it did make! I thought the world was coming to an end. The chimneys shook off almost every house here in Oakland. Pa and I got ready and rode our bicycles to Oakland, which is about seven miles without any breakfast; think of it! You ought to have seen the sights we saw; men, women and children out in the streets, by the score, some in their night clothes; women fainting right on the streets. It was awful."

Houses Down
"We never passed a block on our way in but what there was from one to three houses shook down. The windows were broken in almost every house. We got to town at last. There was another sight to see: lots of big buildings laying flat; all the windows in the stores were broken; new suits of clothes were laying in the middle of the streets; in fact, most everything was laying out in the street. Why, the streets were just crowded with people. We have all the hospitals crowded with people that got hurt. We have a great many that got killed here in Oakland—don't know how many just yet. We have a martial law here in Oakland just at present. The streets are just loaded with soldiers. No one is allowed out after seven o'clock at night."

Shipyards
"I will write a little about the shipyard. They have had an awful loss there. They had a ferry-boat on the Reel block. It was just half finished, and it toppled over and smashed to pieces. They will have to tear it to pieces now. That is about one hundred thousand dollars alone. They have a big steel boat on the blocks. It came near going over—it was hanging; that was all. We all got in and braced it up good, for if we hadn't it would have gone over at 9 o'clock, as we had a second shock at that time. We worked till 12 noon; then quit for the day. The new dry dock that was just built is a total loss. I guess it will break up the shipbuilding company."

In Frisco
"I will tell you a little about San Francisco. San Francisco is a total loss. It is nothing but a mass of flames. I don't know how many thousands of people got killed. They are laying all over the streets. There will not be any more San Francisco. No one is allowed to land there. People are coming to Oakland by the thousands. Some of them have lost everything they had and a good many are homeless tonight. It will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars in the state of California. People are roaming about the streets here. They don't know what to do or where to go. I guess this will bring hard times to California for years to come."

People Scared
"People are scared to go in houses at all, as we have had several shocks today. A great many families are sleeping in public parks tonight, or even on vacant lots you can see hundreds of families spreading their blankets. The street cars and trains are all tied up. I guess they will be for some time to come, as the ground is sunk from one to eight feet in places. All the water is shut off, as pipes that are underground are broken."

"Well, I guess I will close for this time. Did you get a shock back there. Tell all the folks about it. I will send you all the daily papers. Write and let me know how you folks are."

"As ever,
"FRED."

"All of us are well just now. De-wit and family O. K."

Grand Council Meets: The Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum of Wisconsin is in session in Beloit today.

FIFIELD-WORTENDYKE BALL LAST EVENING

Was One of the Most Delightfully Informal of the Large Formal Society Events This Season.

In the hearty welcome and generous hospitality extended by the hosts and hostesses all rigid formality vanished at the elaborate ball given by Judge and Mrs. Charles L. Fifield and Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Wortendyke last evening, and the guests, numbering nearly three hundred, thoroughly enjoyed every moment from the time the opening dance number was played by the Kheff and Hatch musicians until one o'clock this morning.

Assembly hall was the scene of the festivities. In harmony with the decorative scheme of green and white, myriads of snowy chrysanthemums blossomed forth from the large festoons of holly, which converged to a great ball of mistletoe and multi-colored lights in the center of the ballroom. Pale green curtains concealed the windows and sprays of silver people covered the balcony rail and crowned the gilt-framed mirrors. Little green and white lights glowed in the shrubbery which almost hid the orchestra stand, the archways and trolleys, work of greens, and the artificial hedges of palms and potted plants partitioned off from the main floor the cozy little booths with their divans, rugs, and easy chairs. Two snifterful Jumps surmounting little gateways on the main floor repeated simultaneously the message of the call-bell on the balcony, summoning the wearers of certain colored ribbon to the little hall on the first floor, where a delicious three-course luncheon was served at eighteen small tables. For the latter eighteen tables, of pink carnations served as center-pieces and in the ball-room there were clusters of roses of the same hue.

Throughout the evening tempting ices were served at a little booth in the northeast corner of the hall and the smoking-room close by, furnished with several boxes of fine cigars, proved a cozy retreat for the gentlemen who cared to rest and "talk shop." During the early portion of the evening a number of square dances were introduced and were entered into with such zest and spirit that eventually nearly every couple in the hall participated.

Towards two o'clock the guests began to reluctantly take their departure, declaring as in one voice that they had enjoyed one of the most delightful evenings within their recollections. A number of out-of-town guests were present among them: Mrs. George S. Stuart of New York City, who is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer; Miss Harriet Montgomery of Galena, Ill., who is visiting Miss Grace Valentine; Miss Ella Mae Brown of Omaha, and Curtis Smith of Beloit College.

Entertained at Cards
Messdames R. R. Powell and C. V. Kerch entertained a company of fifty ladies Tuesday afternoon at the pleasant Powell home on Jefferson avenue. Five-handed euchre was the diversion and the prize was won by Mrs. C. A. Thompson. A tempting luncheon was served. On Thursday the same ladies will entertain at another similar company.

Bridge Whist Party
The Misses Grace, Valentine and Mabel Greenman are entertaining at bridge whist this afternoon for Miss Harriet Montgomery of Galena, Ill. The company is being given at the Valentine home.

Company on Thursday
On Thursday Miss Isabel Smith will entertain for Miss Grace Gunther of Chicago, who is a guest of Miss Emma Wiggins.

Mrs. W. T. Sherer and Mrs. Charles Tarrant have issued invitations for Thursday, May 2, at 6:30 at Central hall.

LOCAL MEN BUY 107 ACRES IN SPRING BROOK.

NEAR SITE OF NEW RY. YARDS

Cost Was in Neighborhood of $11,000—New Town to Be Called South Janesville.

It is learned this afternoon that a syndicate of local business men has purchased 107 acres of land lying between the site of the new C. & N. W. railroad yards in Spring Brook and the city and that the new town of South Janesville will be platted thereon. The purchase price was in the neighborhood of $11,000. Some of the parties interested, all of whom refused to divulge as to things regarding the deal, are said to be the Haynes brothers, C. S. Jackman and Fred Glenons. Though no deeds have been filed and exact descriptions of the property cannot be ascertained at this late hour, the reliability of the report is unquestioned.

MISS RUTHERFORD LOST EVERYTHING IN FRISCO-FIRE

Former Janesville Young Lady Watched Store Where She Had Worked Go Up in Smoke—Bernasek.

Lost Much.
Miss Leffingwell, now with J. M. Bestwick & Sons, who has recently returned from the Pacific coast, received the following letter from Miss Anna Rutherford formerly with J. M. Bestwick & Sons:

"Oakland, Cal., 4, 20, '06.
"Dear Dell:—I am still on earth, lost everything, am glad I got out alive. 'Frisco' is entirely wiped off the earth. I stood on the opposite corner and saw the Emporium go up in flames. I tell you it was heart-rending. What a lucky girl you were, Dell, to escape it all. I tell you I thought my time had come. We had to leave our homes and strike for the hills; came back to see it in flames. Well, we ought to be thankful to get out alive. Have not much heart to write very much."

The Emporium was the department store where Miss Rutherford and Miss Leffingwell worked and had 1500 employees.

Word from the Bernaseks.

P. G. Strickler and wife this morning received detailed word from their daughter, Mrs. Frank Bernasek, who with her husband resides in Palo Alto, Calif. The letter states that the first shock at this place was felt at 5:08. The second followed shortly and did great damage. The house in which they lived was twisted out of shape, furniture was broken and not one piece of china or glassware was left entire. Though their loss is considerable they escaped all injury. Mr. Bernasek is connected with the Thiele tailoring establishment there and the new $30,000 building of the firm collapsed. Stanford University buildings were demolished and one student and a workman were killed on the campus by falling debris, while a number of others were hurt seriously. A state of wild excitement existed in the town all day and Mr. and Mrs. Bernasek with others rushed aimlessly about. The fires in San Francisco, which is thirty miles to the north, could be seen all day, but all telegraphic communication was cut off and the only news brought in by refugees. All Palo Alto newspaper offices suffered and only one printing company, the Tribune, was able to issue a sheet. Two extras, on small quarter sheets, were printed on a job press by foot power. Copies of each were sent Mr. Strickler, which are probably the first curios from there to be received here. Palo Alto being on the peninsula, wire communication was destroyed and all day Mr. and Mrs. Bernasek worried about their relatives here, for rumors were afloat to the effect that the interior of the continent had been visited by a terrible rain and wind storm and the entire country was devastated.

The Brethren

By RIDER HAGGARD,
Author of "She," "King Solomon's Mines," Etc.

COPYRIGHT, 1903-1904, BY RIDER HAGGARD

There, standing in front of the fire, also pleasant and cheerful to behold, although his brow seemed somewhat puckered, was Wulf. At the sight of him Godwin turned back through the great door and, having, as it were, stood for one moment in the light, vanished again into the darkness, closing the door behind him. But Rosamund walked on toward the fire.

"You seem cold, cousin," said Wulf, studying her. "Godwin has kept you too long to play with him in church. Well, it is custom, from which I myself have suffered. Be seated on this settle and warm yourself. I am glad to find this chance of speaking with you alone, cousin, since I have a question to ask of you, but I must pray of you to give me no answer to it until four and twenty hours be passed."

"Agreed," she said. "I have given one such promise. Let it serve for both. Now for your question."

"Ah," replied Wulf cheerfully. "I am glad that Godwin went first, since it saves me words, at which he is better than I am."

"I do not know that, Wulf. At least you have more of a little smile," answered Rosamund, with a little smile.

"More, perhaps, but of a different quality. That is what you mean. Well, happily here more words are not in question."

"What, then, are in question, Wulf?"

"Hearts—your heart and my heart. I love you, Rosamund. I love you—all of you, as I have ever loved you, though I did not know it till the other day—that of the light and ever shall love you, and I seek you for my wife. I know that I am only a rough soldier man, full of faults, not holy and learned, like Godwin, yet I swear that I would be a true knight to you all my life and, if the saints give me grace and strength, do great deeds in your honor and watch you well. Oh, what more is there to say?"

"Nothing, Wulf," answered Rosamund, lifting her downcast eyes. "You do not wish that I should answer you, so

"Come, Wulf, we have our answer."

"I will thank you—yes, from my heart, though, in truth, I am grieved that we can be no more brother and sister, as we have been this many a year."

"Tomorrow," he broke in.

"Aye," she answered in a heavy voice. "Tomorrow I must speak, and you must listen."

"The sun had run his course again, and once more it was near 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The brethren stood by the great fire in the hall looking at each other doubtfully."

"It is time," said Wulf, and Godwin nodded.

"As he spoke a woman was seen descending from the solar, and they knew her errand."

"Which?" asked Wulf, but Godwin shook his head.

"Sir Andrew bids me say that he will thank you—yes, from my heart, though, in truth, I am grieved that we can be no more brother and sister, as we have been this many a year."

"Tomorrow," he broke in.

"Aye," she answered in a heavy voice. "Tomorrow I must speak, and you must listen."

ROCKS BAY REGION

Slight Shock Shatters Brick and Plaster in Oakland.

CLEARING AWAY FIRE RUINS

Merchants and Citizens Take Hold of Work with Spirit That Indicates New City Will Rise on Site of Old in Record Time.

San Francisco, April 25.—All the San Francisco peninsula and the bay region are yet a tremble. At midnight there was a slight shock which displaced shattered brick and plaster in Oakland. Forecaster Adie has recorded no less than 17 distinct movements of the earth's crust since the memorable upheaval of last Wednesday.

Erre of Reconstruction.

After all the carnage and the heart-rending tragedies of the civil war, when the smoke of battle had cleared away, reconstruction came. With the ruins still smoldering, with the dead lying under smoking ruins for many miles, where half-starved dogs have been found eating them, San Francisco has passed through the active stage of the calamity and has entered on a period of reconstruction. Gangs of men are clearing away the debris preparatory to the erection of new buildings on the sites of the old—new and better buildings, for the spirit in the air is to make San Francisco greater and more beautiful than ever before.

Business men of all classes are uniting in this spirit, and the same sentiment is expressed by all. Along Market street and elsewhere, the deep booming of dynamite is heard at intervals, as dangerous walls are torn from their foundations and toppled to the earth, making room for the new walls that are to go up in their places. Merchants are hanging out signs or advertising in the papers that they are preparing to resume business. Posted on heaps of still hot bricks are signs notifying employees where to report for work—for there is work to do, and work for pay, not labor performed at the point of bayonets held by soldiers.

Worry Over Relief Chief.

The citizens of San Francisco had done so splendidly in the face of such an appalling catastrophe that some little consternation was created Tuesday morning when President Roosevelt's proclamation was read, turning over to Dr. Edward Devine, of the National Red Cross, the management of relief measures, and the distribution of the great funds so generously appropriated by congress and recommendation to the people of the United States that their contributions of food and supplies and money should be diverted into the same hands.

"If there were a momentary feeling that the men who had endured the heat of the burden of the day were being unfairly treated by this diversion of authority into new and foreign keeping, it was soon dissipated by the reflection that the action of the president was the result of misinformation. At a conference at Ft. Mason, attended by Gens. Greeley and Funston, Mayor Schmitz, Gov. Pardee, Dr. Devine and some others, it was agreed that this was the case and that Dr. Devine himself should frame a telegram to the president informing him of the splendid work already done and of his perfect willingness to assist in forwarding the measures already taken.

Then Wulf, feeling that Rosamund was watching his face beneath the shadow of her long eyelashes, answered:

"Before heaven, I am content also, for whatever may be said against it, now at least there will be two years of war in which one or both of us will may fall, and for that while at least no woman can come between our brotherhood. Uncle, I crave your leave to go serve my liege in Norway."

"And I also," said Godwin.

"In the spring, in the spring," replied Sir Andrew hastily. "which King Henry moves his power. Meanwhile bid you here in all good fellowship. For good or ill the matter is now settled for two years to come, by which time it is likely I shall be in my grave and beyond all troubling."

"I do not say that things have gone altogether as I could have wished, but they are as Rosamund wishes, and that is enough for me. On which of you she looks with the more favor I do not know, and be you content to remain in ignorance of what a father does not think it wise to seek to learn. Now we have done with all this business. Rosamund, dismiss your knights, and be you all three brothers and sister once more till this time two years, when those who live will find an answer to the riddle."

So Rosamund came forward and without a word gave her right hand to Godwin and her left to Wulf and suffered that they should press their lips upon them. So for awhile this was the end of their asking of her in marriage.

As they descended the steps their eyes fell upon the figure of a tall man clad in a pilgrim's cape, hood and low crowned hat, of which the front was bent upward and laced, who carried in his hand a palmer's staff and about his waist the scrip and water bottle.

"What do you seek, holy palmer?" asked Godwin, coming toward him, "a night's lodging in my uncle's house?"

The man bowed, then, fixing on him a pair of beaklike brown eyes, which reminded Godwin of some he had seen, he knew not when or where, answered in the humble voice affected by his class:

"Even so, most noble knight—shelter for man and beast, for my mule is held without, also a word with the lord, Sir Andrew. D'Arcy, for whom I have a message."

"A palmer?" said Wulf. "I thought that palmer always went afoot?"

SKIN DISEASES

There is nothing more distressing than an itching, burning skin disease, and upon the return of warm weather those who are afflicted with skin troubles find the symptoms appearing and know that they will be tormented through the hot summer months. The blood is heated with humors and acid matter, and as they are forced to the surface the skin seems to be on fire. The treatment of skin diseases with external applications is all wrong, because they do not reach the trouble which is in the blood. The most such treatment can be expected to do is, allay the itching and burning and cover up the trouble for awhile, but as soon as it is left off the disease returns.

All food taken into the body contains, in some form, the elements necessary to sustain the different parts. One portion is used for the making of blood, another for muscle, one for bone, still another for fat, and so on. After these different properties are extracted from the food there still remains a portion that is useless, or waste matter, which is intended to be disposed of through the natural channels of bodily waste, the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. At this season of the year, however, these organs become torpid, dull and sluggish, and fail to perform this duty, and these accumulations remain in the system and are absorbed by the blood to ferment and sour, producing burning acids and acid humors. The blood cannot properly nourish the system while in this impure condition, and begins to throw off these acids through the pores and glands of the skin, producing Acne, Eczema, Tetter, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum and skin diseases of every description.

ECZEMA appears usually with a slight redness of the skin, followed by pustules from which there flows a sticky fluid that dries and forms a crust, and the itching is intense. It is generally on the back, breast, arms, legs and face, though other parts of the body may be afflicted. In TETTER the skin dries, cracks and bleeds, and is often very painful. The acid in the blood dries up the natural oils of the skin, causing a dry, feverish, hardened condition and giving it a leathery appearance. ACNE makes its appearance on the face in the form of pimples and black-heads, and is particularly disagreeable because of its unsightly appearance, while PSORIASIS, a scaly disease, comes in patches on different parts of the body. One of the worst forms of skin disease is SALT RHEUM. It discharges a watery fluid, forming sores and producing intense itching. The head and face are the parts usually affected, and sometimes the hair falls out and a mass of sores forms on the scalp.

These and all skin diseases are due to the same cause—burning acids and humors in the blood, and until this vital fluid is cleansed and made pure they will continue. The best treatment for all skin diseases is S. S. S., a remedy that is purely vegetable, being made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, and acts directly on the blood with a cleansing, healing effect. It neutralizes the acids and purifies the blood so that the skin, instead of being blistered and burned by the fiery fluids, is nourished by a supply of cooling, healthy blood. It goes down into the circulation and forces out every particle of waste or foreign matter, builds up the blood and cures all skin diseases promptly and permanently. S. S. S. does not leave the least particle of the poison for future outbreaks, but entirely rids the blood of the cause for all skin diseases.

S. S. S. tones up the system and regulates the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels so that they will carry off the natural waste and refuse matter through the proper channels, instead of leaving it to be absorbed by the blood. Nothing equals S. S. S. in the treatment of these troubles and for building up the general health. Write for our treatise on skin diseases and any medical advice you wish. We make no charge for either.

Washing soon done—well done

That is the story of Peosta Soap. Five bars do five large washings without any boiling, and the five bars in a handy carton cost 25 cents at any grocery. The fine things are done without boiling and rubbing them to pieces, and the heavy things are done without wear and tear on yourself. Peosta is a better soap, that's all!

THE ITCHING WAS ALMOST UNBEARABLE.

Dear Sirs—My body broke out with a rash or eruption which in spite of all efforts to cure continued to get worse. The itching, especially at night, was simply terrible. I would almost disappear at times, only to return, worse than ever. I had tried many highly recommended preparations without benefit, and hearing of S. S. S. determined to give it a fair trial, and was inexpressibly delighted when a few bottles cured me entirely, removing every blemish and pimple from my body. I shall not fail to recommend S. S. GOLL OBEYED ORDERS FROM BANK/PRESIDENT

Bigelow Testifies Cashier Acted Under Instructions in Making Up Reconciliation Sheets.

Milwaukee, April 25.—Frank G. Bigelow, former president of the First National bank of Milwaukee, but now serving a ten years' sentence at Fort Leavenworth prison as a self-confessed defaulter, was the star witness Tuesday in the trial of Henry G. Goll, former assistant cashier of the same bank, charged with making false entries and misapplying funds of the bank. Mr. Bigelow testified that many of the transactions with which Goll, the defendant is charged were made with his knowledge and direction. He further testified that the reconciliation sheets were sent out by his direction.

Attorney Rubin for the defense asked this question:

"It appears from the evidence that during the period mentioned a number of items against Gordon Bigelow were held as cash items. State if you know by whose direction."

"I do not know," he said. "Very likely it was at and by my request, but I do not know."

"Do you remember any specific instances?"

"I remember that there was a check or perhaps more, whose account I cannot recall, which were held in the discount teller's cash. I should have said the exchange teller's."

"State what are the facts regarding the charge tickets made by the defendant either to yourself, Gordon Bigelow, the National Electric company, or the Northwestern Straw works."

Mr. Bigelow said that some of the entries in question had been made by his instructions.

Then when telegrams ordering payment to Tracy & Co. were presented, he said that he remembered orders for payment of $50,000, $20,000 and $20,000 having been made by his direction. He also said that he remembered having directed that the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company be charged $100,000. He also remembered a bill of exchange for $115,000 which he said he charged to them.

"By whose direction was this exhibit No. 120, check for $115,000 drawn?"

"It was by my direction."

On cross-examination by District Attorney Butterfield, relative to various checks which Goll is charged with having misapplied, Mr. Bigelow testified that what Goll did was under his directions.

A FEW FACTS TO READ AND DIGEST

ALWAYS REMEMBER THIS:

LARGE ASSORTMENTS IN ALL DEPARTMENTS HAVE MADE THIS STORE FAMOUS

Thousands of satisfied customers throughout several counties in Southern Wisconsin swear by The Big Store. Scarce things are here.

CARPETS—Where would you expect to see a stock that compares with this store's, outside of the largest cities? The same might be asked of any line we carry. If not a customer a visit will disclose a stock so complete that it makes trading a real pleasure.

Buy a Silk or Wool Dress here and we have everything in linings and trimmings to match.

Buy Curtains or Draperies, everything here to harmonize with other furnishings. Any color scheme can be carried out.

Buy Carpets, Rugs, Matting, Linoleum, one gets thoroughly reliable qualities and the very latest styles. Just think of the immense amount of money invested in order to be able to carry a stock of the proportions of this store's. Judging from results, from our constantly increasing business, our efforts in putting before the people such a stock of merchandise are appreciated. How often the remark is made: "If you can't find it at Bostwicks, there is no use looking around." The reason is plain. Do not get prejudiced by the tales of disgruntled merchants in or out of Janesville who can fight us only with their tongues, but call and be your own judge. The goods are here; the prices are right; we aim to have all customers waited on attentively, and all we can ask is a fair chance to prove to you that for a year around trading place The Big Store cannot be beaten.

Quality is the main thing. Any merchant can name a low price for trash, but where is the satisfaction in buying it.

As a rule the things that one sees advertised at too low a figure have no merit to them. The better way is to pay a fair price for a good article and if it proves radically wrong we always stand ready to make it right.

Stick to The Big Store and you will wear diamonds bought with the money saved by buying here a good article once instead of cheap stuff several times.
